

Tax time is just around the corner. To better serve my constituents, I've compiled a list of web links to answer your questions and make filing your taxes just a little bit easier. ☐ ☐ Filing Your Federal Taxes:

As you probably know, federal taxes must be filed by April 15th each year in order to ensure the timely processing of all tax submissions and refunds.

Below I have listed a number of web links to help answer any questions you may have regarding the filing of your federal taxes, as well as to inform you of free services that may be available to you.

General Information:

For any questions you may have regarding your tax forms, filing, and returns, as well as tax credits for individuals, families and business; please visit the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) website at: www.irs.gov .

Para información general en Español:

<http://www.irs.gov/espanol/index.html>

Information on Easing the Tax Burden for New Jerseyans:

I understand that with the current state of our economy, many New Jersey families are feeling hard hit this tax season. The IRS has provided information regarding back taxes, maximizing your refund, and e-filing to help ease the financial squeeze being felt by taxpayers.

<http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=202244,00.html?portlet=7>

Tax Credit Information:

For information and answers to questions regarding tax credits for individuals, households and business, please click the link below:

<http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=202107,00.html>

Changes to Tax Laws:

Each year changes are made to the United States Tax Code that may affect the outcome of your tax liability and/or tax return. For information regarding 2008 changes to tax laws, please click the link below:

<http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=202106,00.html>

Free Tax Services:

The IRS offers a number of free advocate and language services to help taxpayers with tax preparation, filings and returns. For information regarding these services, please click the link below:

<http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=202121,00.html>

Local New Jersey Tax Offices:

To find the closest IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center, please click the link below:

<http://www.irs.gov/localcontacts/article/0,,id=98315,00.html>

National Taxpayer Advocate:

The National Taxpayer Advocate is an independent organization within the IRS whose employees assist taxpayers who are experiencing economic harm, seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, or believe that an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should. The local Taxpayer Advocate for the State of New Jersey is located at:

955 S. Springfield Avenue, 1st Floor

Springfield, NJ 07081

973-921-4043 (phone)

973-921-4355 (fax)

For further information regarding the Taxpayer Advocate, please click the link below:

<http://www.irs.gov/advocate/index.html>

Frequently Asked Questions:

For more Frequently Asked Questions about taxes, preparation, filing, and returns, please click the link below:

<http://www.irs.gov/faqs/index.html>